

QUESTIONS
Staff Name	Date
Print these questions. Fill in your name and the date. Read each question carefully and select the correct letter of the answer or complete the question with a word, phrase, or explanation. Circle the correct answer, fill in the blank, or write a short answer, phrase, or explanation. Check your own answers after you have completed the questions. Return your completed answer sheet to the office.
1	Down syndrome: a. Is caused by a chromosomal abnormality b. Is curable c. Results in severe brain damage d. Is a rare condition
2	Typical features of an individual with Down syndrome can also be found in the general population. a. True b. False
3	Adaptive behaviors include conceptual, social, and practical skills needed to function. a. True b. False
4	A characteristic of Down syndrome is: a. not enough genetic material b. few medical problems c. short stature d. severe mental retardation
5	Individuals diagnosed with Down syndrome may have wide ranging intellectual and physical capabilities. a. True b. False
6	Which of the following is NOT an example of a genetic variation that can cause Down syndrome: a. Mosaicism b. Trisomy 21 c. Chromosome 21 d. Translocation
7	Down syndrome is most likely due to: a. a behavioral activity of the parents b. an environmental factor c. too little genetic material d. a random event
8	A person diagnosed with Down syndrome has an extra partial or complete chromosome 21. a. True b. False
9	Which of the following would an individual with Down syndrome most likely NOT benefit from: a. weight control b. therapy c. early intervention d. a quiet, restful environment
10	Which of the following would NOT be an effective training technique when working with individuals with Down syndrome. a. communicate with concrete ideas b. use consistent feedback c. teach consistent routines d. emphasize abstract concepts

ANSWERS
1	Down syndrome: a. Is caused by a chromosomal abnormality
2	Typical features of an individual with Down syndrome can also be found in the general population. a. True
3	Adaptive behaviors include conceptual, social, and practical skills needed to function. a. True
4	A characteristic of Down syndrome is: c. short stature
5	Individuals diagnosed with Down syndrome may have wide ranging intellectual and physical capabilities. a. True
6	Which of the following is NOT an example of a genetic variation that can cause Down syndrome: c. Chromosome 21
7	Down syndrome is most likely due to: d. a random event
8	A person diagnosed with Down syndrome has an extra partial or complete chromosome 21. a. True
9	Which of the following would an individual with Down syndrome most likely NOT benefit from: d. a quiet, restful environment
10	Which of the following would NOT be an effective training technique when working with individuals with Down syndrome. d. emphasize abstract concepts